

Interior Design | CIDA Evaluation Standards |

	Exceeded Criteria Excellence, Work is distinctive, Professional	Met Criteria Very good, Work is above acceptable standard, Professional	Approached Criteria Satisfactory, Work is acceptable	Did Not Meet Criteria Unsatisfactory, Work is below acceptable standard	Notes Provide clarifying notes of your review
Creativity Concept Development	Design solution is innovative and unique. Ideas are well elaborated demonstrating flexibility and resourcefulness.	Design reflects the process of creative thinking and the development of individual style.	Design demonstrates some attempt at creativity and originality.	Design demonstrates little creative thinking, and no individual style.
Functional Resolution Program	Functional resolution demonstrates fluency, flexibility, originality, and elaboration.	Functional solutions are Design adequately demonstrates good development through research of the program.	Design demonstrates an understanding through research of the program.	Design lacks research and there is no understanding of the program.
Design Fundamentals	Project demonstrates a superior competency in understanding human factors, design principles and elements.	Project demonstrates understanding of human factors, and all necessary design fundamentals.	Project demonstrates little understanding of human factors, design principals and elements.	Project exhibits a lack of understanding of human factor, design basics.
Regulatory Requirements	Project demonstrates superior comprehension of ADA law, zoning ordinances, and building code requirements.	Project demonstrates an above-average comprehension of regulatory requirements	Project demonstrates acceptable comprehension of the code requirements.	Project demonstrates minimal comprehension of regulatory requirements.
Presentation Graphic Proficiency	Graphic presentation demonstrates superior aesthetic and stylistic qualities.	Presentation is well organized and professional.	The overall presentation is unprofessional and not composed with logical sequence.	The presentation explains little to no understanding of the project.	