Fulbright Mini-retreat Survey, February 2010

20 responses
Summary See complete responses
1. The topics of funding and Fulbright opportunities are important to FIT faculty development.

2. The presenters were informative and helpful.

3. The folder materials were appropriate.

4. I learned new information about the Fulbright Scholars program.

5. As a result of this mini-retreat, I am more likely to explore funding opportunities for myself.
6. On a scale of 1-5, please rate the overall program.

- 1 - Poor: 0 0%
- 2: 0 0%
- 3: 0 0%
- 4: 2 10%
- 5 - Excellent: 18 90%

Comments
I was great to learn about FIT Fulbright scholars! Thank you. A great idea. Very supportive of the faculty and opportunities available for us. It also helped to hear how helpful the grants office can be. I think it behooves FIT to encourage their faculty to apply for these things, since any involvement with the program makes FIT look good. But there are a lot of programs where Fulbright probably isn't the most relevant grant-giving institution. I learned a lot, though, and was excited to hear about the faculty here who'd already been involved. Who knew? Thanks for setting it up! The fa...

Number of daily responses