Mini-Retreat Breakfast

Blended Learning
Classrooms Without Walls...sometimes

Please join colleagues, Tamara Cupples, Online Learning and Academic Technologies, David Drogin, History of Art, Elaine Maldonado, CET, Karen Pearson, Science and Mathematics and Jeffrey Riman, CET, for the final mini-retreat of the academic year. Explore the possibilities of teaching a class partially online and partially face-to-face. Talk to FIT faculty who currently teach blended courses and learn more about this innovative approach to teaching and learning. Breakfast will be provided.

Registration is required – email celia_baez@fitnyc.edu or call X7-4064.

Friday April 16, 2010, 9:00–12:00 PM, Location: TBA

A Faculty Development Activity Sponsored by CET.
