In collaboration with the New York District Export Council and The United States - Indonesia Society

South East Asia: The Next Engines of Growth

Thursday, May 2, 2013
3:30 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.
FIT’s Katie Murphy Amphitheater on the ground floor of the Pomerantz Art & Design Center on the northwest corner of 27th St. and 7th Ave., New York City

The speakers will discuss how the fashion industry is helping to fuel growth in this fast growing area including the Philippines, Indonesia, Cambodia, Vietnam, Malaysia, and the rest of the region.

Program by:
Laura Jones, ITM Advisory Board Member
David Merrill, President, The United States - Indonesia Society
Professor Christine S. Pomeranz, ITM Chairperson, FIT

The Diversity Council of the Fashion Institute of Technology is pleased to give its stamp of support for this event.

This presentation is also accessible via webinar at: www.FITnyc.edu/ITM

Reception sponsored by WFIT and International Trade Student Association (ITSA) following lecture

Fashion Institute of Technology/SUNY . 28th Street at 7th Avenue, New York City
She is married to Minister Eduardo de Vega of the Philippine Mission to the UN in NY. They have a young daughter, Ms. Dizon-de Vega speaks Spanish and French in addition to English, Kapampangan and Filipino.

Prior to joining the Foreign Service, she was a faculty member of the Department of English and Comparative Literature, UP Diliman, from 1989-1994. She also taught Philippine History at the Punlaan Technical School in San Juan, MM. She placed 1st in the Foreign Service Officer Examination and 3rd in the Career Ministers Examination in 1994 and 2008, respectively. She was admitted to the Philippine Bar in 2000.

Ms. Dizon-de Vega speaks Spanish and French in addition to English, Kapampangan and Filipino. She is married to Minister Eduardo de Vega of the Philippine Mission to the UN in NY. They have a young daughter, Montevar.