Fostering Critical Thinking in Your Classroom

Tuesday
June 9, 2009
8:30 AM–4:00 PM

Please join Dr. Gerald Nosich, an associate of the Center for Critical Thinking and professor in the Philosophy Department at Buffalo State University, as well as FIT colleagues Frances Dearing, Curriculum & Instruction, Brian Fallon, Writing Studio, Maury Johnson, FMM, Sandra Markus, Fashion Design and Roberta Paley, Social Sciences for this all-day workshop. The day's events will focus on the role of critical thinking in learning, strategies to promote critical thinking across the curriculum and classroom methodologies that help students become better problem-solvers and analytical thinkers.

There are a limited number of seats for this event, and adjunct faculty who participate in the full day's activities will receive a stipend of $100. If you would like to attend this workshop and meet other faculty members who are interested in this important conversation, please contact celia\_baez@fitnyc.edu to RSVP by June 1, 2009. Breakfast and lunch will be provided.
