Name of Household Member Filling Out Form _____

2025 - 2026 Self-Employment Form

Student, Spouse (if applicable) and each parent of a dependent student in the household who earned income from work without receiving a W-2 form or received a 1099 form for work and did not file a tax return must submit this form.

Household Employee: A household employee is hired to do household work where the employer determines what and how work is to be done. Some examples of household employees include babysitters, housekeepers, and gardeners. A household employee must file a tax return if they earned more than $2,600 from a single employer even if they did not receive a W-2 form.

Were you a household employee who earned less than $2600 from a single employer in 2023?
(Circle Yes or No) Yes / No

If “Yes”, skip section below, sign, date and submit form. If “No”, fill out section below, sign, date, and submit form.

Self-Employed: If you earned more than $400 in 2023, did not receive a W-2 form or received a 1099 form for work, you are considered self-employed and must fill out the section below. If the net profit that you earned (your gross income, minus work expenses) was over $400, then you were required to file a tax return (see IRS Publication 17).

1. Total Income Earned from Self-Employment in 2023: _____
2. Deductible Expenses from Self-Employment in 2023: _____
 - a. Note: Deductible Expenses can include Advertising, Car Expenses, Insurance, Legal and professional services, Office expenses, Supplies, Utilities, and other expenses (see IRS Schedule C).
3. Net Profit from Self-Employment (subtract line 2 from line 1): _____

By signing this form, I certify that all of the above information is true and complete to the best of my knowledge.
