

2022 World Trade Week NYC Scholarship

An educational scholarship for undergraduate students majoring in International Trade or International Business

Every year, the President of the United States declares the third full week of May as World Trade Week to underscore the importance of international trade to the U.S. economy. This year, the focal point of the World Trade Week NYC calendar of events is the Kick-Off Event and Keynote Address which honors the achievements of international trade and transportation professionals in the New York City metropolitan region. World Trade Week NYC created this scholarship, with the financial backing of the New York District Export Council (NYDEC), to encourage the next generation of business leaders to pursue an undergraduate academic program that will help them build the skills and knowledge they need to be successful and contribute to the region's economy. The scholarship is intended to benefit high-achieving undergraduate students who attend New York institutions of higher education that are members of the New York District Export Council. Two scholarships in the amount of $1,000 each will be awarded to a student in the Department of International Trade and Marketing (ITM) at the Fashion Institute of Technology (FIT), SUNY and to an undergraduate student majoring in international business at Baruch College, CUNY.
